

St. Petro Mohyla Institute Announcement

The Board of St. Petro Mohyla Institute is pleased to announce that Debbie Ehmann has been appointed to serve as the Executive Director of the Institute, effective May 17, 2010.

Debbie brings a demonstrated, solid record of leadership, work experiences, achievements, skill sets, and personal attributes considered highly essential to the position of Executive Director of the Institute. Working in close collaboration with, and being directly accountable to the Board, Debbie will provide leadership and be responsible for the development and management of the Institute's strategic plan, business plan, budget, and performance measures to help ensure that expected outcomes are achieved.

Debbie's career constellation over more than twenty years includes the following: owner and operator of mixed farm operations; signed English interpreter for hearing impaired children; part-time administrator for the Real Estate Institute of Saskatchewan; social services worker for the Farm Stress Unit of Saskatchewan Agriculture and Food; Executive Director (secondment) of the Canadian Agriculture Safety Association; Manager, Pork Interpretive Gallery in Saskatoon; Manager, Certified General Accountants Association (CGA) member programs and student services; Senior Human Resource Manager for Athabasca Catering Partnership Limited; and more recently, Human Resource Manager for The Home Depot in Saskatoon. In addition to the above, Debbie also served one term as the Mayor of the Town of Dundurn. Debbie achieved a Business Administration Certificate (BAC) from the University of Saskatchewan, and a Canadian Institute of Management Designation (CIM).

Currently, Debbie is the Governor for Toastmasters International, District 42 Area, and also served as the treasurer for Toastmasters International. In the sphere of volunteerism, Debbie served as a director with Credit Union Central of Saskatchewan; member of the executive for the Democratic Process, Governance, Conference and Government Policy Committee; and executive committee member of the Action Committee on the Rural Economy (ACRE), and Chair of the Monitoring Committee.

Debbie is a proud mother of three children, and she has five grandchildren. Her motto is "Life is a journey, embrace it". The Ukrainian culture continues to be an important part of Debbie's life.

The Board is also pleased to note that Debbie will be a "live-in" Executive Director, taking up residence at Institute this June.

The Board invites members, alumni, supporters and friends of St. Petro Mohyla Institute to drop in to meet Debbie. She may be contacted by telephone at 1 (306) 653-1944, or by email at mohyla.director@sasktel.net.
